

Earth Link

Encouraging Deep Bonding with Earth

After ten years, Earth Link is restructuring for the future.

We are looking for fresh approaches, skills, talents, and people with a commitment to the implementation of the vision of Earth Link for a world where there is respect, reverence and care for the whole earth community.

Earth Link currently conducts workshops and reflective opportunities in spirituality and earth-human wellbeing at Four Winds and other venues.

We are seeking people who can be part of a team, and who are looking for part-time work up to a maximum of 15 hours per week. You may be required for evenings and weekends. We want to hear from you if you have skills and demonstrated experience in any of the following:

- Coordinate finance and property, including budget preparation and monitoring, oversight administration, event management, promotion, fundraising, oversight maintenance of property
- Provide catering and hospitality, including coordinating guests and bookings, catering for workshops, housekeeping and related tasks

The capacity to be involved in the delivery of programmes would be an advantage.

Remuneration will be in the range of $35-$45 per hour, depending on responsibilities and experience. Stipended persons will be paid a part stipend. Volunteers will be warmly welcomed. All positions will be for 40 weeks per annum only. All personnel will be engaged as consultants; no provision will be made for income tax, superannuation or leave.

On-site accommodation for one person or a couple is available and may be included as part of a remuneration package.

For more information about Earth Link or how you could contribute, please contact Sr. Mary Tinney as below.

Written Expressions of Interest, outlining skills, experience and qualifications are to be received by Friday 13th August. It is desirable that the new team will be in place by the end of September, but commencement dates are negotiable.
