

Resources: Laudate Si

- Text and other resources: <http://catholicclimatemovement.global/encyclical-laudato-si-on-ecology-pope-francis/> including good spoken summary by Rev James Martin.
- Written and spoken versions of Martin's top ten points are here: <http://americamagazine.org/issue/top-ten-takeaways-laudato-si>
- Vatican video clip which reflectively captures the main themes <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1tYdOlqvpqg&feature=youtu.be>
- NB NCR Reader's Guide-a chapter by chapter summary and questions for discussion <http://ncrnews.org/documents/NCR%20Readers%20guide.pdf?bl>
- Cath News Special edition <http://campaignemail.fatfish.com.au/t/ViewEmail/r/6CF5B79073BAF3612540EF23F30FEDED/13AF688C5A934509DBC23BD704D2542D>
- Analysis of key concepts esp earth-human relationship <http://www.cruxnow.com/faith/2015/06/19/pope-francis-environmental-encyclical-is-even-more-radical-than-it-appears/>
- Theologians respond- America magazine –more extended analysis <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EdAJO-anDmY>
- Iliia Delio- a more critical response <http://globalsistersreport.org/column/speaking-god/spirituality/lex-credendi-lex-vivendi-response-laudato-si%E2%80%99-27446>
- Reflections from theologians, ethicists and philosophers-in depth analysis <http://www.abc.net.au/religion/>
- Donal Dorr on cultural ecological conversion https://www.thinkingfaith.org/sites/default/files/pdf/20150720_1dorr.pdf
- Damien Howard-situates the encyclical within Catholic social teaching. https://www.thinkingfaith.org/sites/default/files/pdf/20150618_1.pdf